Lights Out, Water On; Cubs Flee

Cub Scout Pack 785-C, sponsored by St. Catherine Labourer Church, held a father and son overnight at El Nido Park as part of the pack's September activities.

But the campout didn't last. Following a weiner roast and gathering around the campfire, the boys and their dads got out the sleeping bags and hit the sack.

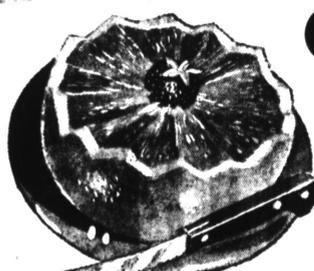

Some two hours after the "lights out" call was sounded, the automatic sprinkler system in the park came on. The boys and their fathers grabbed for trash cans to cover the sprinkler heads, then packed up and left the park. By 5 a.m., they had all returned to their own homes—and dry beds.
